 - Provide support with setting up user research, surveys and user tests
 - Evaluate and access user feedback
 - Work as part of the design team and within the guidelines provided by direction
- Basic experience in the field of UX and/or Human-Computer Interaction, Interaction Design, Psychology or Ergonomics,... (either as an academic discipline or work/project-based experience)
 - Knowledge about user-centered design and user behavior
 - Understanding of rapid prototyping and iterative processes
 - Motivation to solve design problems and to think “outside the box”
 - Passion for games and game services
 - Fluent in English, both verbally and written

Nice to have:

- Proficiency in prototyping tools (Figma, Sketch, Adobe XD or similar)
- Proficiency in at least of 1 visual design tool (Photoshop, Illustrator or similar)
- Experience with either user research or user testing
