As a Game Programmer on our team, you will be a hands-on programmer, being able to make a strong contribution for the overall project. In this role, you will work on every aspect of the game, from engine and game systems to developer tools.

You are eager to work on a yet unannounced game title and to have direct influence on what ends up in our players' hands. As a key developer of a small, talented dev team, you will bring to life the vision of the game.

Your responsibilities:

- Implement various gameplay systems and tools for a yet unannounced game
- Implement and refactor engine features to support the projects technical needs
- Deliver robust and flexible code
- Act as a service-oriented ambassador of engineering to the rest of the team
- Collaborate with all disciplines to evaluate technical possibilities, conceptualize, and realize game features and functionality and create the best possible player experience
- Ensure that newly developed features and systems meet expectations and are coherent with existing code
- Make use of iterative prototyping to demonstrate the validity of gameplay features
- Analyze and understand the game design to define required features and game systems - suggest improvements whenever necessary by designing and implementing new systems or modifying existing systems
- Identify and resolve bugs reported by people from other disciplines, the quality control team, and your peers
- Anticipate complex problems and propose respective solutions, considering the entire production pipeline

What you bring:

- Degree in Computer Science, Mathematics, Physics or equivalent
- At least 2 years of programming experience in C++
- Advanced skills in C++ and C#

- Strong data structures, logic, algorithms, and optimization skills
- Experience with Unity engine and the design and implementation of various game systems is a strong plus
- Knowledge of good software engineering practices, design patterns and software architecture
- Strong ability for analyzing and optimizing existing systems
- Good verbal and written communication skills in English
- Self-motivated team player who strongly wants to contribute to the project
- Interest and ability to learn and grow
- Passion for video games and technology
